

Northrop Grumman Appoints Todd Ernst as Vice President, Investor Relations

July 31, 2019

FALLS CHURCH, Va., July 31, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Northrop Grumman Corporation (NYSE: NOC) has appointed Todd Ernst, vice president of investor relations, reporting to Ken Bedingfield, corporate vice president and chief financial officer, effective August 5. Ernst succeeds Steve Movius, who will continue to serve as corporate vice president and treasurer until his planned retirement in early 2020.

Prior to joining Northrop Grumman, Ernst served as vice president of investor relations at GE. Previously, he was vice president of corporate development at Raytheon, and led investor relations for seven years. Ernst joined Raytheon in 2010 as director, competitive assessment for corporate strategy.

Ernst has also held senior positions at Balyasny Asset Management and Neuberger Berman, covering aerospace and defense and other industry sectors. He holds a Bachelor of Arts from DePauw University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business. He is a designated Certified Treasury Professional.

Northrop Grumman is a leading global security company providing innovative systems, products and solutions in autonomous systems, cyber, C4ISR, space, strike, and logistics and modernization to customers worldwide. Please visit news.northropgrumman.com and follow us on Twitter, @NGCNews, for more information.

Contact: Tim Paynter
703-280-2720 (office)
Timothy.Paynter@ngc.com

Source: Northrop Grumman Corporation