

Northrop Grumman's 2014 'America Day' to Feature Army Acquisition Executive, Local Congresswoman

June 27, 2014

What: Northrop Grumman is celebrating the 23rd anniversary of its "America Day," a celebration of our nation's birthday combined with an employee appreciation event, at its Rolling Meadows, Illinois, facility.

As part of the annual celebration, military personnel and local elected officials will attend and address company employees. Honored guests and speakers will include the Honorable Heidi Shyu, assistant secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology; Congresswoman Tammy Duckworth, Illinois' 8th District; and Capt. Paul Overstreet, U.S. Navy director for Program Control for the Joint Strike Fighter (F-35). The event will culminate with a barbecue-style cookout accompanied by live patriotic music.

When: Tuesday, July 1, 2014
11 a.m. Central time
Media must arrive no later than 10:45 a.m.

Where: 600 Hicks Road, Rolling Meadows, Ill.
Members of the press are asked to enter via Security Post 6, the main entrance at the front of the building. U.S. citizenship is required.

RSVP: Required by Monday, June 30, 2014
Ellen Hamilton
224-625-4693
ellen.hamilton@ngc.com

Northrop Grumman is a leading global security company providing innovative systems, products and solutions in unmanned systems, cyber, C4ISR, and logistics and modernization to government and commercial customers worldwide. Please visit www.northropgrumman.com for more information.

Logo - <http://photos.prnewswire.com/prnh/20121024/LA98563LOGO>

/PRNewswire -- June 27, 2014/

SOURCE Northrop Grumman Corporation