

Northrop Grumman Appoints Tom McLemore Vice President of Legislative Affairs for Cybersecurity, C4I and Space

October 2, 2014

FALLS CHURCH, Va., Oct. 2, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Northrop Grumman Corporation (NYSE: NOC) has announced the appointment of Tom McLemore as vice president of legislative affairs for Cybersecurity; Command, Control, Communications, Computers and Intelligence (C4I) and Space.

NORTHROP GRUMMAN

A blue swoosh graphic that starts under the 'N' and curves upwards and to the right, ending under the 'M'.

A photo accompanying this release is available at: <http://media.globenewswire.com/noc/mediagallery.html?pkgid=28102>.

In this role, McLemore will contribute to the development and execution of legislative strategies and outreach for the company's cyber, C4I and space business pursuits. He will report to Lesley Kalan, vice president, Legislative Affairs.

"We are pleased to have Tom join our legislative affairs team," Kalan said. "His extensive experience as the staff director of the House Appropriations Defense and Homeland Security subcommittees, combined with his work with the U.S. Air Force will serve him well in his new role."

Before joining Northrop Grumman, McLemore served as staff director of the House Appropriations Committee, Subcommittee on Defense and the Subcommittee on Homeland Security. He also worked as staff on the Treasury, Transportation, Housing and Urban Development and Military Construction subcommittees. Prior to his work on Capitol Hill, McLemore served in a variety of financial analyst positions with the Air Force.

Northrop Grumman is a leading global security company providing innovative systems, products and solutions in unmanned systems, cyber, C4ISR, and logistics and modernization to government and commercial customers worldwide. Please visit www.northropgrumman.com for more information.

Logo - <http://photos.prnewswire.com/prnh/20121024/LA98563LOGO>

SOURCE Northrop Grumman Corporation

Randy Belote, 703-280-2720, randy.belote@ngc.com