

Northrop Grumman Extends Tender Offer for Litton Industries Inc.

March 9, 2001

LOS ANGELES, March 16, 2001 -- Northrop Grumman Corporation (NYSE:NOC) announced today that it has extended its pending tender offer for the common and preferred stock of Litton Industries Inc. (NYSE:LIT) from March 15, 2001, to March 22, 2001, at midnight E.S.T.

The existing tender offer for all outstanding Litton stock, as previously announced, will be extended in increments of five business days or less until the Hart-Scott-Rodino and European Union waiting periods have expired as provided in Northrop Grumman's agreement with Litton. Northrop Grumman said it expects to further extend the tender offer next Friday, March 23, 2001, for an additional one or more business days.

At the close of business on March 15, 2001, approximately 41,859,700 shares of Litton Industries common and Series B preferred stock had been validly tendered and not withdrawn. According to Litton, there were 51,292,796 shares outstanding and reserved for issuance under its employee stock option, restricted stock or deferred stock plans as of Nov. 30, 2000.

Northrop Grumman Corporation, headquartered in Los Angeles, is a world-class, high technology company providing innovative solutions in systems integration, defense electronics and information technology for its U.S. and international military, government and commercial customers, as a prime contractor, principal subcontractor, team member or preferred supplier.
