NORTHROP GRUMMAN REFILES

HART-SCOTT-RODINO NOTIFICATION

LOS ANGELES -- Feb. 27, 2001 -- Northrop Grumman Corporation (NYSE: NOC) announced that it voluntarily withdrew and refiled its Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) notification today with the appropriate government agencies to provide added time to complete the review of the company's pending acquisition of Litton Industries Inc. (NYSE: LIT). The company stated that it has had extensive discussions with the regulatory authorities and still expects to complete the tender offer for Litton shares by late March 2001.

Northrop Grumman also said that it will extend the existing tender offer for all outstanding Litton stock in increments of five business days or less until the HSR and European Union waiting periods have expired as provided in its agreement with Litton. The first of these extensions is expected to occur on Friday, March 2, 2001.

Northrop Grumman Corporation, headquartered in Los Angeles, is a world-class, high technology company providing innovative solutions in systems integration, defense electronics and information technology for its U.S. and international military, government and commercial customers, as a prime contractor, principal subcontractor, team member or preferred supplier. The company had revenues of $7.6 billion in 2000 and has a workforce of approximately 39,000 employees.
