NORTHROP GRUMMAN, TRW CONTINUE CONSTRUCTIVE
DISCUSSIONS WITH JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

LOS ANGELES — Dec. 5, 2002 — Northrop Grumman Corporation

(NYSE: NOC) and TRW Inc. (NYSE: TRW) announced today that they continue to have constructive discussions with the Department of Justice relating to their proposed merger and continue to believe that a mutually acceptable consent decree can be reached within the next several days. Every effort will be made, the parties said, to complete their pending merger promptly following shareholder approval of the merger at meetings on Dec. 11, 2002.

The companies agreed with the Justice Department, however, that in the event the consent decree is not finalized by Dec. 9, 2002, they will not close the merger until the consent decree is finalized or until Dec. 16, 2002, whichever is earlier.

As previously disclosed, the anticipated consent decree will contain provisions to assure fair and open competition with respect to certain satellite technologies and it is not expected that any divestitures will be required.
