NORTHROP GRUMMAN REMAINS FULLY COMMITTED

TO ITS EXCHANGE OFFER FOR TRW

Northrop Grumman Encourages TRW's Board To Act in the Best Interests of TRW Shareholders

LOS ANGELES -- March 13, 2002 -- Northrop Grumman Corporation (NYSE: NOC) issued the following statement in response to TRW's (NYSE: TRW) announcement earlier today:

"Northrop Grumman remains fully committed to its previously announced exchange offer to acquire TRW. If TRW's board and management want to maximize shareholder value, as they stated in today's release, then we would encourage them to sit down with us immediately to begin the process of negotiating a transaction that is in the best interests of the shareholders of both our companies," said Kent Kresa, chairman and chief executive officer. "While we continue to believe that our offer represents full and fair value based on analysis of the available public data, TRW continues to hold us at arm's length and deny us access to information that could support its claim that an offer of greater value is warranted.

"Furthermore, we believe that TRW and its shareholders should recognize that our offer has a higher degree of certainty, can be rapidly completed and poses far less risk than any of the alternatives suggested in its announcement today. TRW promises to explore a variety of contingent actions, which may lead to the separation of its automotive and aerospace businesses while arguing that its shareholders should hold out hope that these potential actions can deliver value. In contrast, Northrop's proposal represents a single, coherent, well-defined transaction that will provide excellent value immediately while also providing TRW shareholders the opportunity to participate in the exciting future growth potential of Northrop Grumman.

"As to any conditions attached to our offer, it should be clear that only TRW's board has the ability to create near-term value by removing the principal conditions through immediately entering into good faith negotiations and allowing Northrop Grumman to conduct its due diligence. Not doing so only serves to hinder the realization of value for TRW shareholders.

"A Northrop Grumman/TRW combination makes eminent strategic sense and will bring together our two companies' complementary defense capabilities," said Kresa. "Over the years, we are very proud of the fact that we have built a major tier-one defense company. This has been accomplished by first identifying and then successfully integrating new businesses into the Northrop Grumman family. We have also consistently delivered shareholder value not only to our shareholders but to the shareholders of these acquired companies," concluded Kresa.

Background of Offer

On Feb. 22, 2002, Northrop Grumman announced a proposal to combine with TRW in a transaction that would deliver $47 in value of Northrop Grumman common stock for each share of TRW. Promptly following the close of the transaction, Northrop Grumman would expect to separate TRW's automotive business. On March 3, 2002, Northrop Grumman announced that it was commencing an exchange offer for all outstanding shares of common stock and preference stock of TRW Inc., in order to take
